Take a step back in time as "Ms. Abigail" shares words of wisdom from her collection of about 1,000 classic advice books. Abigail Grotke, a Library of Congress digital projects coordinator, advice blogger and historian of the art of personal guidance, has collected books spanning 1822 to 1978 that cover age-old topics of dating, love, living together, marriage, health, beauty, puberty, sex, etiquette, housekeeping, home economics, and home repairs. Grotke has spent years scouting used bookstores and thrift shops to locate these treasures of self help.

If you're already an "expert" on dating, learn more about how to build, organize and write about a personal collection of what interests you! Refreshments will be served. Books will be available for sale and signing.
